Re: David Nault

To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Nault has been hospitalized at Seton Medical Center Austin since 2/1/13 and is currently in the Intensive Care Unit. His case has been medically complex, so he remains under the care of multiple specialists. It is unclear how long he will require hospitalization and at this time, we are unable to estimate a discharge date. Thank you for any assistance you are able to provide.

Sincerely,

Ashley Ruiz, LCSW
